

Curriculum Vitae dr. D.G. (Dienke) Hondius

Education

1999: Ph.D. April 22, 1999, University of Amsterdam, Faculty of Social and Behavioural Sciences. Amsterdam School of Social Science Research. Thesis: "Gemengde huwelijken, gemengde gevoelens: Aanvaarding en ontwijking van etnisch en religieus verschil in Nederland sinds 1945" (Mixed Marriages, Mixed Feelings: Acceptance and Avoidance of Religious and Ethnic Difference in the Netherlands since 1945). Published in Dutch with SDU Uitgevers, Den Haag 1999, second edition 2001. Advisors: prof.dr.mr. C.J.M. Schuyt and prof.dr. J. Goudsblom.

1988: MA, Modern History, University of Amsterdam.

1984: BA, Modern History, University of Amsterdam.

Employment

2004-: Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam, Faculty of Letters, Department of History, associate professor of contemporary history

2000-: Erasmus University Rotterdam, Faculty of History & Arts Studies, Postdoc researcher and associate professor of social and cultural history

1984-: Anne Frank House, Amsterdam: production, international management and organization of travelling exhibitions and educational programs.

2008-2010: Postdoc researcher, writing a monography on the History of Education about World War II: Developments in the Netherlands in international perspective. Research programme "The Dynamics of War, Heritage and Memory" (Oorlog, Erfgoed en Herinnering - een dynamisch perspectief). Netherlands Organisation of Scientific Research (NWO) and Ministry of Health, Welfare and Sport (VWS), University of Amsterdam and VU University <http://www.clue.nu/>.

2006-2008: Universiteit Utrecht, Faculty of Humanities, Department of Language and Culture Studies and Department of History: associate professor of history. Courses: History and memory of Fascism; Introduction to Historical Research; "A Coloured World: History of 'Race' and Racism".

2000-2002: Penn State University, State College, PA, USA. Summer Program Jewish Studies. Organization of three week fulltime student lecture and excursion program, teaching on the history of the Holocaust, Jewish History and Human Rights in the Netherlands.

1999: Post-doc researcher for SOTO (Foundation for Research on Return and Reception of War Victims, Stichting Onderzoek Terugkeer en Opvang van Oorlogsslachtoffers), connected with NIOD, Amsterdam.

1997: Scholar in residence at Elmhurst College, Chicago, Illinois, USA: Holocaust Education Program.

1993-1998: University of Amsterdam, Amsterdam School for Social Science. Courses in Oral History and Interviewing Techniques and Theories, for Sociology and Anthropology Students (undergraduate).

1983-1996: SUA Publishers, Amsterdam. Editor, Reader, Acquisition of new manuscripts. 1989-1990 Chair of the selection committee's meetings to discuss and select new manuscripts.