

Curriculum Vitae prof. dr. C.F.G. (Chris) Lorenz

vrije Universiteit amsterdam

Chris Lorenz is associate professor of philosophy of history and of historiography at the VU University Amsterdam in the Netherlands. He did his MA and Ph.D. at the University of Amsterdam (both cum laude: this is the highest distinction in the Netherlands) and held a chair in philosophy of history in Leiden between 1989 and 2004. He published predominantly on modern German historiography, philosophy of history, comparative historiography and higher education in journals like History and Theory, Rethinking History, Journal of Contemporary History, Geschichte und Gesellschaft, Wissenschaftsrecht, and Studies in Philosophy and Education. He was awarded with a Alexander Von Humboldt Researchprize in Germany in 1996 and has been visiting professor in Graz (Austria), Erfurt (Germany), Stellenbosch (South Africa) and in 2005 at the UMICH in Ann Arbor (USA). His publications have been translated into English, German, French, Spanish, Italian, Hungarian, Polish, Hebrew, Korean and Chinese.